Identifying your Current English Level

How to perform a Level Check on the Reallyenglish platform

After you have logged in to Reallyenglish and verified your MyStay English account, you can begin the programme. You will be prompted to do a diagnostic test to determine your current English level. Please complete this as soon as possible as you will need to let your host know what level you are before your first online session with them.

Once you have completed the initial test:

- Click into the Learning Path section on the screen.
- Look at your next recommended lessons for Grammar, Listening and Reading. Take note of the Level for each category.
- If different levels are showing, use the lowest number as your current skill level. In the example below Grammar is Level 3, Listening is Level 2 and Reading is Level 3 so this person should advise their Virtual Homestay ENGLISH host they should start with Level 2 as their learning level.

The screenshot shows the 'Learning Path' section of the Reallyenglish platform. At the top, there are three filter buttons: 'Learning Path' (selected), 'All Activities', and 'Completed'. Below this is the 'October Challenges' section, which includes three challenge icons labeled G, L, and R. The 'Reading Challenge' is highlighted with a large green background and a white circle containing the letter 'R'. Below the challenges, there is a list of three activities:
